

ALEXANDRIA GAZETTE

FRIDAY EVENING, APRIL 20.

RETURNED AFTER FORTY YEARS.—Mr. John T. Vincent, who is stopping at the International Hotel, has returned to Washington after forty years' absence. Mr. Vincent learned the trade of machinist at Laurel, Md., and after working in Baltimore and this city, enlisted in Capt. Howard's company, in the Maryland battalion, in the Mexican war. On returning in 1848 he remained here a few months and then left for California. Since then his life has been most eventful. He has lived on the plains among the Indians, in China, Africa and Italy. In the latter country he married and had a family, but both wife and children have died. He returns to the home of his youth to find such changes as to make him feel that he is in a strange land. His parents are dead, and of his eight brothers and sisters but two remain—a brother in Alexandria and a sister, Mrs. Homer, in Montgomery county, Md.—Washington Star.

[Mr. Vincent is a brother of Mr. W. F. Vincent of this city and his returned was mentioned in the GAZETTE a few weeks ago.]

JUDGMENT AFFIRMED.—The case of Picklesimer vs. the Richmond and Danville Company, from Danville, lately decided by the Court of Appeals, is an interesting one. The plaintiff was a cattle-drover from Henderson, N. C., and was on his way to Richmond with a drove of cattle. When the train reached Danville the caboose-car in which he was riding was left on the outside of the river, and he was told that he must walk across the railroad bridge to North Danville or ride on top of a freight car. He chose the latter alternative, and in climbing on a freight car fell and was hurt. He brought suit against the company, and the jury gave him $10,000 damages. An appeal was taken to the Court of Appeals, and the judgment of the lower court was affirmed.
